

ORGANIC FARM

Come see the breathtaking panoramic views from our 80 acre organic farm in upcountry on the slopes of Haleakala. We'd love to show you around and demonstrate the importance of organic farming for the conservation of land and ocean.

The volcanic soil on the island is extremely rich and fertile enabling us to grow one of the largest selections of sugar cane varieties from around the world.

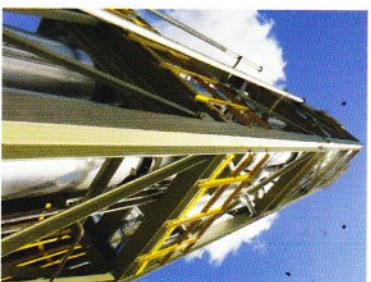

USDA CERTIFIED ORGANIC: To achieve organic certification means we cultivate without the use of pesticides, synthetic fertilizers, genetically modified organisms (GMOs), or ionizing radiation. We uphold and govern these guidelines throughout the entire property.

DISTILLERY

Our distillery is run by a team of craft spirits engineers, respectfully referred to as libation artists with an acute attention to detail; which is quite important when operating precision equipment with a goal of setting some of the highest standards in the industry.

Our state of the art facility operates under eco-friendly practices utilizing solar power, organic farming, and numerous recycling efforts.

MARTINI GARDEN: To complement your craft spirits experience, we've planted some florals and herbs to use when making your favorite mixed drink. You'll taste how clean, smooth and versatile our spirits are for yourself.
